The Northern Lights

It's the power of Icelandic nature to turn the ordinary into the extraordinary. A dip in a pool becomes a soak in a geothermal lagoon; a casual stroll can transform into a trek across a glittering glacier; and a quiet night may mean front-row seats to the Aurora Borealis curtains of light, or the soft, pinkish hue of the midnight sun. No place on Earth seems so alien, but perhaps no place is as pure a showcase for our planet's most raw and active geological features as Iceland. It's indescribably beautiful.

Northern Lights & Star Gazing

You're about to embark on a mission to witness the Northern Lights, one of nature's most stunning celestial displays. As you gaze into the Arctic night sky, you'll discover other cosmic wonders, from countless stars to the moon. This tour not only seeks the legendary Northern Lights but also explores stars and constellations above.

NOTE: Northern Lights are available mid-August – mid to late April. An alternate experience can be reserved for you if traveling outside of this time.

Blue Lagoon

Take a dip in the world-famous Blue Lagoon geothermal spa, surrounded by vast lava fields. Relax in the soothing seawater, enjoy the sauna and steam rooms carved into lava rock, and experience the healing power of the man-made waterfall. Includes access to the bathing area, silica mud mask, towel, and your first drink.

Golden Circle Tour

Golden Circle Tour is one of the most popular attractions in Iceland, see Strokkur erupting boiling water skywards at Geysir, feel the power of Gullfoss waterfall and discover the unique geology and history at Þingvellir.

Nestled on the hill of an expansive, two-mile estate in the heart of one Italy's most beloved regions, this luxury Tuscan resort offers an off-the-radar, authentic Tuscan experience inspired by local traditions. The Renaissance overlooks the magnificent Serchio Valley, and is a stone's throw from medieval villages like Barga and Castelnuovo di Garfagnana. The resort was featured on ABC's "The Bachelor" in February 2018, with the town of Barga and the Renaissance Tuscany as the home base for the show's cast. The hotel's romantic setting, the region's beauty and the town's culture made the perfect location for this episode.

Renaissance Tuscany Il Ciocco Resort & Spa overlooks the mountainous Serchio Valley, one of the most unexplored areas of Italy. Here guests can discover nearby quaint medieval villages, Barga and Lucca, or travel within one or two hours to well-known city favorites, like Pisa, Florence, and Cinque Terre*. *Pisa, Florence and Cinque Terra are reachable by car or train – day trips not to be missed.
